BOLIVIA - REPUBLIC A few years ago substantial numbers of many of the common republican issues glutted the market, causing many collectors (and potential collectors) to wonder if any types or dates would prove to be legitimately scarce, once Bolivia exposed her backwoods wealth to the world market. This abundance was slowly absorbed by the market from 1968 through 1973; suddenly, last year, we observed a surging demand which consumed every quality specimen or rare type as soon as it reached the marketplace. What nobody seemed to notice was that virtually no really good items have come out of Bolivia for nearly two years now! Thus a classic principle of economics: supply recedes, demand expands, and therefore prices increase. With the interest in Simon Bolivar bust coinage escalating and sophistication regarding true rarity of the various types and dates only a matter of time, we are compelled to recommend this series. This is the most complete collection of Bolivian republican coins we have ever viewed:

*16 -1/4 Sol 1852 Y13 LLama/mountain. Toned EF $12.50, AU-UNC . 20.00

*21 -2 Soles LA PAZ 1853 J Y-A43 BARE HEAD This Extremely Rare One-Year Type has never before been offered for public sale to the best of our knowledge. Wayte Raymond never listed the type in his standard catalogues. Yeoman did not list the type until this specimen emerged during preparation of their 10th Edition. Seppa & Almanzar did not know of its existence when they wrote their specialized Bolivia book in 1970. In no event could it have been a case of mistaken attribution as the reverse is extremely distinctive with its large non-laureate bust of Simon Bolivar. Furthermore, none of the major museums have one nor did any of the many collections offered over the past 100+ yrs. It is known to us that one other specimen is housed in the finest Latin American Type collection ever assembled. Since that specimen has never been on the open market, it is fair to state that this opportunity to acquire this type is UNIQUE as of today. Its value is therefore impossible to assess correctly. In the field of non-Mexican Latin American minors, very few coins have sales records over $1000 (consider this fact relative to any other major coin series!) However, several Venezuelan minors and a surprisingly large number of Argentine coins bring over $1000 on their local markets. Also it should be noted that Almanzar listed the laureate bust type of the La Paz 2 Soles (Y41) at a price in excess of $800 earlier this year. This specimen is a very collectible Fine + and is certainly a very favorable purchase at 1250.00

*22 -2 Soles LA PAZ 1854 F Y41 Laureate Bust Type. Albeit we felt Almanzar's price for his A. UNC. specimen a bit high, we fully agree with his assessment of the rarity of this type. Probably not more than 20 specimens exist - we know of only five or six offerings over the past 15 years. Nice VF, RR 225.00

23 -2 Soles LA PAZ 1855 F Y41 Unlisted date in all references - we know of only one other specimen. Only G-VG, but RRR. . . . 125.00

24 -2 Soles LA PAZ 1856 P Y41 The fourth date of this UNIQUE complete set of this denomination of this very rare temporary mint. This VG-F specimen is also RR with less than 10 known. . . . 125.00

25 -4 Soles 1827 JM C54 F-VF, decent, RRR with 3-5 known . . . 100.00

26 -4 Soles 1830 J C54 F-VF, R $15.00; 4 Soles 1830 JL C54 AVF. 6.00

27 -4 Soles 1853 FP Y17 Scarce Type. Decent Fine + $17.50, Bold VF . 40.00

29 -4 Soles 1859 FJ Y22 One-year type. VF 8.00

*30 -4 Soles LA PAZ 1853 J Y43 BARE HEAD. A companion to the extremely rare 2 Soles offered above (#21). This very bold specimen is easily VF+ with a faint circle above the date which leads us to suspect it was once holed and expertly plugged. Nonetheless it is attractive and far more desirable in appearance than the specimens we sold earlier this year at $175 and $125 respectively. RR. . 200.00

31 -4 Soles LA PAZ 1854 F Y42 Regular Potosi Bust. Nice VF . . 22.50

32 -4 Soles LA PAZ 1855 F Y42 Regular Potosi Bust. AVF, RR. . 25.00

33 -4 Soles LA PAZ 1855 F Y42 Crude "PAZ" Bust. Obverse dies were probably sent from Potosi and used until they broke early in 1855. Local engravers then created a crude imitation of the professional design made in Potosi. We call this the "PAZ" bust. This is the only La Paz emission that can be called "common". AVF $17.50; AEF 30.00

34 -4 Soles 1856 P Y42 PAZ Bust. F-VF $18.00, Very Fine 24.00

BRAZIL It has been 17 months since the last extensive offering of early Brazilian silver coins came onto the market. At that time we issued our all-Latin America list #10 which had 162 listings under Brazil minors. Louis Collins (as Douglas Weaver Coins) issued a 240 item offering at almost the same time. Both of those offerings were very successful (we sold every silver piece dated before 1850!). Immediately thereafter we started searching for individual pieces or a collection in order to present another nice group. For eleven lists over those 17 months we have offered virtually no early Brazil silver as we simply could not obtain any decent quality pieces (availability, not price, was the problem). With the thriving Brazilian economy driving prices of the early numismatic coins up at the rate of 40% per year for the last 2 1/2 years, we were pleased to be able to obtain this exceptionally nice group. As Brazil approaches world power status, we expect these prices to appear ridiculously cheap within two years!

*237 -2 Reales 1880 Popayan Y-A4 Issued just before the closing of the Popayan mint. Popayan issued some decimo system coinage (of 1/4 thru 5 decimos denominations) during this era. However, word must have reached Popayan of the change to the centavo system since they struck a few 50 Centavos in 1880. Strangely, in 1880, they struck this type in a denomination (reales) which had been eliminated 18 yrs. earlier. A very interesting emission which is seldom encountered. WE HOPE THAT THIS LIST has offered a few items of interest to all of our customers who are collectors and enthusiasts of Latin American minor coinage. By forming this new subsidiary, we feel that our position in Latin American coinage will become more widely known. Consequently, we hope to be offered more related collections while maintaining the largest stock of good Latin material in the USA. For the next year or so, we plan to issue a specialized list, similar to this list, every four months or thereabouts.

Please note that space limitation prevented the inclusion of POTOSI and LIMA COBS, COSTA RICA and SALVADOR TOKENS and numerous common, lower-priced coins. Persons interested in these areas should request the appropriate special listing or send us their want list.
